FINAL ISSUE OF THIS PUBLICATION

With this issue, the Livestock Regulatory Branches formerly of the Bureau of Animal Industry cease publishing the regular monthly Service and Regulatory Announcements.

This publication had its beginning in May 1907 and became an established periodical in 1913 for publishing informal decisions, extracts, correspondence, and other items of general interest. It has served as a handbook and ready reference. However, during the last decade the need for a printed publication has become less apparent. Much of the information printed in it is sent to field offices in speedier form. For these reasons and for the sake of economy, its publication is discontinued.

Anyone desiring information formerly printed in SRA should write to the Director of Livestock Research, Washington 25, D. C., specifying the type of information desired.
